Prison Romance; Caddie Expects Perfect Score; Signs of Spring

Mlle. Marthe Regnier, famous French actress, is shown with her own creation, a hat of black silk, with upturned brim. The brim can be changed into any shape to suit the face that will wear it.

Two mule deer, with antlers interlocked, were found recently in California. One was dead and the victor, held prisoner in the embrace of his antagonist, died soon after being released.

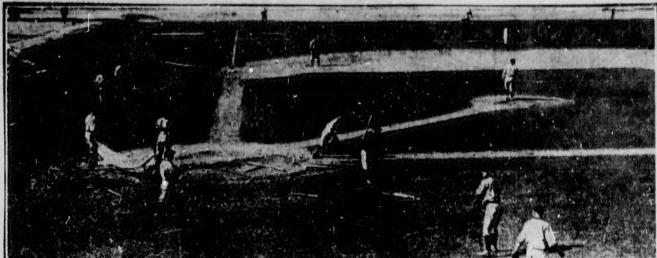

The "Ninety-Nine", owned by Edsel Ford, was the winner of the sweepstakes at Miami, the speed classic of water sports of the winter season at the Florida resort. Photograph shows the winning craft crossing the line.

Signs of spring. This Shropshire ewe and twin-lambs are taking the first turn of the season at grazing.

There is much wailing to be heard in the monkey house at the Bronx Park Zoo, New York, for "Bridge", a monkey, is in the sick ward suffering from neuralgia. The keepers have quite a job administering medicine.

Here is the training camp at Catalina Island, where the Chicago Cubs, under the direction of Manager Bill Killifer, are getting into shape for the opening of the 1924 season.

Catherine Breshkovsky, "little grandmother of the Russian revolution", who, on her 80th birthday, just passed, finds plenty of time to direct the work in the different schools she has founded in Czechoslovakia.

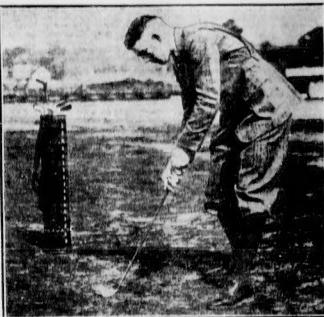

While a prison trusty played jazz music, Gertrude Virginia Colville, of Brooklyn, behind the walls of Chambersburg prison, was married to Charles E. Pickard, now serving a term for the transportation of liquor.

Roxie Stinson, divorced wife of the late Jesse Smith, confidant of Attorney-General Daugherty, who testified in Washington before the senate committee, investigating the attorney-general's administration.

Behind the scenes in the Labor party, Dr. Marian Phillips is regarded as having played a major role in putting her party into power. She is known officially as the chief woman officer of the Labor party.

Young Stribling, the wonder schoolboy boxer of Georgia, has taken up another line of sport foreign to his own. He is shown taking a turn at golf at an Atlanta country club.

Previous to the hop-off of the round-the-world planes, crowds thronged Rockwell Field, San Diego, where the planes were on exhibition for an opportunity to examine the ships in detail.

Peeping joyfully now that the "lazy" season has arrived, their first on earth, these little chicks are ready to match their strength against "mother earth" to scratch their daily food.

Whale fishing is the business which is making a prosperous village out of the heretofore poor colony of Sandefjord, Norway. It came about through the Soviet government allowing them to hunt in their waters. Photograph shows the cutting up of a whale.

Too young to appreciate the arrival of their first spring season, these airedale pups, nevertheless, enjoy their first outdoor meal.

News of the District

KLESKUN LAKE

Bulletin News Service:
The regular meeting of the County Council was held yesterday morning being present. The session was lengthy and considerable business transacted.

Ralph Turner, who had his ankle injury fracture from a falling tree, a few months since, was present. Mr. Cochrane was elected president of the Grand Council of the C.P.A. in place of the retiring president J. H. Harris.

Bulletin News Service:
A local radio engineer, Leduc Power Plant has manufactured a comparatively inexpensive radio apparatus for the home market.

Mr. MacLachlan, banker, has returned from Los Angeles. He said he would be home which was on its return. It is dying out, and "Hedie" cannot tell me where any of my friends who migrated thither to before.

Another unsuccessful attempt was made on Monday night to capture the last of the robbers who had been at Edmonton South, with two rinks from Leduc journeyed north.

The recent heavy snowfall has saddened the hearts of the farmers as an abundance of moisture is now causing the general softening of the crops.

At the annual general meeting on Sunday all the members were present with the exception of Councilor Egan.

The day after appointing the board of health was passed. The appointment of Dr. Egan was voted out until next meeting.

Much disappointment it felt over the fact that the Tomin's resolution in the Legislature last week about adopting some means of enabling the people to vote in municipal elections. The argument of President Tomin was that the resolution by stating that a change would be inconvenient from Saturday to Sunday would prevent the houses being used as polling places was characterized as rather weak, as there was no provision made except for the rule to use municipalities for the convenience of which people are accustomed.

Mr. W. E. Brown entertained the bridge club at an enjoyable dance on Wednesday evening.

Mr. W. E. Brown, on Tuesday from Nelson, B.C., where he has been working with his son, Frank, Mrs. Emily.

The marriage of Miss Emma Zieke to Mr. Edward Falkenberg was celebrated at the home of Wm. Falkenberg on April 4. The Wohlfert E. V. Wohlfert performed the ceremony. The young couple will reside at the home of the bride's parents southeast of Leduc.

The fair at Leduc was operated last year with a surplus of $1,267 and is to be repeated this year in favor of the movement organized locally to build the ice to complete the plant. The money will be used to show which camp does best when completed to Strathcona.

Catarrh in the Nose Goes Away Quickly

INHALER TREATMENT EFFECTIVE

Stops Nasty Discharges, Improves the Hearing, Easy to Use

No longer is it necessary to drug the stomach in order to remove Catarrh or a Grippe Cold. Be a new man with the inhaler treatment which is in no heating. That it can exterminate completely out of the system.

Catarrh is the name of this wretched disease which has been giving grand results in Grange, Bonchon, Salario, Rose Thresh and Central Cafes. It is an easy, pleasant, effective and sure treatment.

The annual meeting of the Wataskeewin Tennis Club will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gifford on Friday evening next at eight o'clock.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gifford have invited him to their home to meet the members.

They know that they have decided to give him a warm welcome.

There was considerable anxiety among the members of the club when it was learned that robbers had broken into the stores of V. C. Gifford and had taken away his cash, bonds and goods. Some suspicious looking men were in Wataskeewin.

The program was one of the

Bulletin News Service:

Another of the early settlers of the community, who died on Saturday last in the person of James William Doster, at the age of fifty-nine years, was born in Ontario, where he resided until nineteen years ago, when he came to Wetaskiwin. He was born in Mulhurst, where he conducted a hotel and was known as the hotel keeper. He was well known especially by the early settlers of the Pigeon River country, and had three sons and leaves five brothers and three sisters, all of whom live in Ontario.

A funeral service was held at Falls, Alberta. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon from the Wataskeewin Hotel, where friends were in attendance. The interment took place in the Wataskeewin cemetery.

A more enjoyable time was spent on Monday evening when twenty-five friends of Miss Ida Eddie, the widow of the late Jim Bridgeman, daughter of the hostess, made the presentation in a small hall which had been arranged for the purpose. Miss Natalie Ward was the winner. Miss R. D. Ross, owner of tea, and dainty refreshments.

One of the largest real estate deals to be put through in the Wataskeewin area was made recently by Mr. C. W. Pugh of Nightingale, who purchased the Wataskeewin Room from R. W. W. Farnum took possession Monday evening and expects to arrive in the city in a few days. The deal was put through by L. H. Ross.

The fire brigade was called on Saturday morning about four o'clock for a fire which had broken out in a house on Thruas Street owned by Mr. W. D. Miller. The property had remained unoccupied for some time, and it is quite a mystery as to what caused the fire.

The building was entirely destroyed, and insurance to the amount of $600 was paid out.

Another call was sent in for the fire brigade on Saturday morning. A fire was discovered in the house of Jake Shantz, Dufferin Street. The fire had got into the basement and caused the excitement. No damage was done.

Quite a number of citizens are looking forward to the opening of the Edmonton Spring Show this week.

Now that the hockey season is over, the baseball season is on the horizon. There is some talk of having a semi-pro team here from Fred LeDoux, Ponoka, and Wataskeewin. An organization meeting will be held on Saturday evening at the Wataskeewin Room.

Born—At the Wataskeewin Room, on March 26, Mrs. T. C. Hutchinson, a son.

Warren Kinney, field representative of the Canadian Pacific, who has been in the city during the past few days working on the organization of the railway, having made very good progress in his negotiations, has been called to see him about establishing a branch office in Wataskeewin.

He will be here Saturday evening at the Wataskeewin Room.

TALK NOT ALWAYS CHEAP.

Not yet but soon is the word of the Provincial Minister of Telephones to subscribers who have been anticipating an increase in the "phone rates. The system went behind last year and is likely to repeat during the present one. In fact the Minister says plainly that the rates would be raised if times were not so hard. It is feared that to raise the price would bring in more cancellations than cash.

SECRET DIPLOMACY.

Proceedings in the Agricultural committee on Friday suggest that the Government party in the Legislature have got to the stage where they are afraid to discuss a question informally in committee until it has been threshed out in the party caucus and a "cut and dried" policy determined upon. That is carrying the caucus habit farther than was ever done under a preceding administration. It is developing into a method of hole-in-corner government best described as a caucusocracy.

A GREAT WESTERNER.

Mr. J. H. Ashdown has been in the front rank of Western business men ever since the West began to have business men who were not in the employ of the great fur trading companies. Had he kept a diary since he started a tinshop in Winnipeg he could have jotted down in it all that has happened in the prairie country since the white man began to chase the Indians and the buffalo off the plains and started to plant farms, cities and provinces in the "great lone land." Mr. Ashdown was a human history of Western development, and in that development no single individual has played a larger or more recognized part.

DOUBTFUL TACTICS.

The head of the postal employees union at Toronto says the mail men all over Canada will go on strike April 14th unless the Government grants an increase in pay that has been demanded. Not very long ago the head of the local organization of Dominion employees said the men in Edmonton had no intention of doing anything of the kind, which rather casts doubt upon the validity of this Toronto ultimatum. It may be that the postal workers deserve more pay than they are getting, but the wisdom of going after it in that particular way is much to be suspected. With thousands of men clamoring for work a strike under present conditions might easily develop into a strike-out.

EDMONTON BAND TO LONDON?

The Commercial Graduates basketball team have generously offered to contribute half of their share of the net receipts at the Toronto games to help send the Newsboys' band to the Empire Exhibition. The opinion is quite general and is gaining, that it would be a mistake to miss the chance to send this representative organization to London. Its appearance there would draw attention to Alberta in a distinctive and most favorable way, and help to stimulate interest among exhibition visitors in this Province. While the Provincial Government has declined to assist the proposal there is a possibility that the decision may be reconsidered. Funds are scarce at the treasury and economy is of paramount importance, but there are directions in which savings can be made to better advantage. A grant to meet the expenses of the trip ought to be a paying investment.

DITCHES COST MONEY.

Digging ditches is a costly business, whether the object is to take water off land or to put water on land. The member for Sedgewick says the Viking drainage ditch has not been finished but that the farmers affected are already loaded with a burden of debt they can never pay. Hon. C. R. Mitchell says the farmers in the C.P.R. irrigation tract find themselves saddled with capital charges they cannot hope to meet. In both cases a call is made for the Province to come to the rescue and in the long run it may be suspected that that is what will happen. Unconvinced as the prospect is, there is consolation in knowing that this is not the only country where such enterprises have gone wrong financially. Most of the gigantic irrigation projects undertaken by the United States in the semi-arid regions of the West are still unfinished, and in most of the areas included the farmers are defying the Government to sell their property for enough to get back the money already spent.

OUT MANOEUVRED.

Under the heading "The Branch Lines Raid," the Montreal Star says editorially:

"The Government has this year divided its twenty-six branch railways project into twenty-six bills—in branch, one bill."

"The idea in the mind of the Government is almost clear—namely, that it is not necessary to spend twenty-six or twenty-eight millions we haven't got, stands more chance of getting by the Senate if it goes up straight in single-file than if it tries to march by a broad front with hands playing."

"On the matter more especially, it is doubtful whether there are enough senators in the Senate to make it pass that a few of them can secure majorities because of party or personal desires to please some particular section. Then the moment the branch is made in the wall, a bout of political hand-shaking is sure to ensue. One section will say to another: 'We help as pass our bill, and we will help you pass yours.'

"It will require all the patriotism, courage and will power of the Senate to confront this danger and not to do it. It is not for us to look to the Commons. Western branch lines are part of the web which a Government without a majority offers to the Progressive half of the alleged Opposition. Naturally the British Progressives will turn up to defend the web. That will join two of the parties and ensure a safe majority."

From which it is to be inferred that the Star is against the branch lines construction policy holus-bolus. Likewise that the "whisper of death" crowd for whom it speaks are both alarmed and angered at the proposal to proceed with the building of "feeder" for the National system. That at least is logical. The prophets of doom ought to range themselves in opposition to any and all projects of the kind. They cannot do otherwise if they are honest in the view that the country is hopelessly mired in debt and bound to smother. Nothing will more surely help to avert that much-heralded doom than to open up new tracts of fertile territory to settlement, to provide facilities for trade where they are required, and to give the Government railway a fair chance to earn money enough to pay its way. Hostility from the fore-tellers of catastrophe is the highest testimony that could come from that quarter as to the advantages of branch line construction to the National system and the country.

And it will be noted in this hostile camp it is feared that the prospect of construction is very much improved by the submission of the several branch lines to Parliament separately. The Star is positively peevish because the program is now to be dealt with in detail instead of by wholesale. And that for the vociferously declared reason that it thinks the branch lines are much more likely to be sanctioned by Parliament and actually built. Some Western advocates of the construction policy might ponder that fact with profit. At least the Star and its friends know when they have been out-maneuvered, and the Star is sparing no words to make clear that is precisely what has been done.

Current Comment

MILITARY EXPENDITURE SMALL

Hallifax, April 7.—Canada cannot be accused of militarism in its expenditures for defence. Its cost is $1.45 per capita, the lowest in the Empire. There has been retrenchment in that respect.

TRICK AND ARTIFICE

Los Angeles Times.—A French scientist is making a wood more firm and durable by making by mixing certain sawdust, chalk and cheap chemicals together and subjecting them to high pressure. The product can be made to take a high polish and is virtually fireproof. We are told that the French scientist has made a fortune from sawdust, but how long can this thing keep up? There must be a catch in it somehow.

SIR HENRY THORNTON

Vancouver Province.—The people of British Columbia, as, indeed, of all Canada with learn with satisfaction that there is no trust in the world that Sir Henry Thornton is about to make in his position as president of the National Trust Fund. To be in first for active service against shell-harpoons and poison-gas and all the mechanical horrors of European war is a fine record, but it is not the only record that will be well placed (and rightly) a different value on the balance sheet of the present war.

And if the effect of high wages in the present war is to other industries, to stimulate economy in the human element and to save the cost of feeding of men in machinery, so much the better here.

BURNT CHILDREN

Oscoturk in Britain is very bad in spite of unemployment (and trade depression). Men are presented with a choice either to burn themselves or to be burned. The soldiers called for actual fighting save on the strength of their rifles. The men who are to be burnt to be in first for service against shell-harpoons and poison-gas and all the mechanical horrors of European war are a fine record, but it is not the only record that will be well placed (and rightly) a different value on the balance sheet of the present war.

And if the effect of high wages in the present war is to other industries, to stimulate economy in the human element and to save the cost of feeding of men in machinery, so much the better here.

THE SUSPICIOUS SOULS

The extreme antagonists continue to be anxious about the position of Canada in the empire. They are not made comfortable even by Mr. MacKenzie King's which he attended as the representative of Canada no one ever spoke with complete propriety by statement from the British ministry. The truth is there is a school of antagonists who thrive on mystery and feel that they are treated with gross injustice by Britain. They are not the friends of the Dominions or otherwise meddling in the domestic affairs of the countries in which they have neither citizenship nor authority.

AN OLD-FASHIONED REMEDY

Boston, Mass.—At the Conference of Methodists in New York Bishop Luther H. Wilson said in as many words, "Not only is it the duty of the Imperial Government to register the approval of the means of settling international disputes, I saw the soldiers in hospital here, God's men fighting on God's side for the oppressed and the weak, and I am sure that they would not do less, but I'd do more." We submit that here is an expression of opinion not only mainly but also in detail, that the British Empire is not the same most familiar in that of physical violence. It may shock both pacific and militarist to say that was in the spirit of the epoch in such it must be to be considered in self-prediction until something better is devised.

AN APPEAL FOR HELP

To the Editor of The Bulletin:—We, the Ukrainian workers of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, are writing to you concerning the meeting, March 29, 1924, have decided to protest before the name of organized workers throughout the world over against the cruel oppression of the workers of western Ukrainian territories by the R.N.W.M.P. and the Canadian Mounties. The Ukrainian workers of the R.N.W.M.P. and the Canadian Mounties are workers of these territories given in economic, political and social respects. They are being persecuted and annexed by the R.N.W.M.P. and the Canadian Mounties.

All the units, the old and the young, are constantly risking their lives and property for the freedom of the western settler to live in, and the freedom of the Eastern Capital. It is now our duty to see that they are given the right to live.

It may be added that the survivors among the veterans of the R.N.W.M.P. are receiving payments of about one-third of the pay they received while serving. The present R. C. M. P. and the Canadian Mounties with twenty-six years' service receive $25.00 a month, while the R.N.W.M.P. with twenty-six years' service receive $10.00 a month, which is paid in installments for the old body receives only $15.00 a year, minimum of twelve years' service, a maximum of twenty-five years' service, $25.00 a month, which would be approximately twice that amount for the R.N.W.M.P. and the Canadian Mounties.

It is the desire of the veterans that about 125 of the veterans should be still living.

Yours truly,

HARWOOD STEELE.

BARGAINS

Everything in life is not expensive.

Bargains are to be found on all sides.

But happiness is to be had—and very cheaply, by those who will not let go of it.

The happiness that can be gained is not to be had in the costliest things.

Someones a few friendly words.

In the spring the clear skies and the birds singing are a great bargain.

But happiness is not to be had in the costliest things.

Rich men hold the trouble to be the costliest.

But they cannot keep them for ever.

For every way-side road they travel is a great bargain.
